

Terra Clean Energy Corp.

CSE: TCEC | OTCQB: TCEFF | FSE: C900 America's uranium comeback starts here—on the San Rafael Swell.

□ Why Utah? Why Now?

The U.S. imports over 90% of its nuclear fuel—a national security vulnerability in the age of AI.

Big Beautiful Bill is driving a nuclear renaissance, and AI-fueled electricity demand is exploding.

Without uranium, there is no clean grid. Without domestic supply, there is no energy independence.

Terra's Utah property is past-producing, near-surface, and ready to roar back to life.

The San Rafael Swell: A Forgotten Treasure

75 claims. 9 historic mines.

Ore grades up to 1% U₃O₈—that's 50x the global average

Surface readings up to 21,000 CPS, equating to 0.22% U₃O₈

Located in Emery County, Utah—a low-risk, pro-nuclear jurisdiction with year-round access and a uranium mill just 75 miles away

This isn't a greenfield fantasy. It's a brownfield revival—with infrastructure, history, and upside.

Two Claim Groups. One Strategic Vision. Wheal Anne Group

Covers the Lucky Strike Mine, which produced 10,000+ tons of ore at 0.22% U₃O₈ and 0.09% V₂O₅

Infrastructure still visible. Mineralization still present.

Terra has a staged earn-in to 100% ownership.

Green Vein Mesa Group

Covers the Payday, Hertz, and Green Vein Mines

Historic samples up to 1% U₃O₈

Terra is deploying modern 3D modeling to unlock new zones

The AI-Electricity Nexus

AI data centers are energy monsters—and they're multiplying

Nuclear is the only scalable, carbon-free solution

Uranium demand is surging—and the U.S. needs domestic supply to meet it

Terra's Utah asset is perfectly timed to ride this wave

Capital Structure: Built for Breakout

Market Cap: < $5M

Shares Outstanding: 36.3M

Warrants: 22M

Options & RSUs: 2.78M

This is early-stage leverage with national relevance.

Leadership That Gets It

Greg Cameron (CEO): Former senior investment banker, now merchant bank leader

Trevor Perkins (VP Exploration): Uranium geologist with NI 43-101 credentials

Jordan Trimble (Advisor): CEO of Skyharbour Resources, strategic partner

FOMO Alert: The Clock Is Ticking

The mines were never depleted—just abandoned when prices collapsed in the 1970s

Terra is bringing them back with modern tech, strategic timing, and national urgency

The next drill program could be the ignition point

This is the kind of setup that turns microcaps into legends.
