Top Stock Picks for Today 09/15/10

Our members are very, very happy with our yesterday's picks, that is a sector play

- medium to long term- if you could afford a few bumps, you could be richly rewarded.

These two Biopharma stocks are making a quite comeback . One of them was cut in half when it didn't get the necessary approval from the FDA, the other one fell on reimbursement concerns.

Both of them are trading briskly and gathering upward momentum. These are pretty High Risk High Reward stocks, suitable only for those who are not on Prilosec or Zantac.
