

Hot Stock Picks for Thursday 06-02-11

For profit education an American experience costing tax payers Billions of Dollars, left Millions without jobs. The battered stocks of this institutions are surging.

We got Four Stocks for you, Learn more, YES! to earn more. Sounds like their Tag Line.

We think there is an opportunity to make money, if the sector successfully lobbies its way out of congress.

HERE THEY ARE

COCO- Corinthian Colleges, operates as a post-secondary career education company in the United States and Canada. The company offers various diploma programs, as well as associate?s, bachelor?s, and master?s degrees.

LOPE - Grand Canyon Education, provides online post secondary education services in the United States. It focuses on offering graduate and undergraduate degree programs in education, business, and healthcare disciplines.

NAUH -National American University, through its subsidiary, Dlorah, Inc., engages in the ownership and operation of National American University that provides post-secondary education services primarily to working adults and other non-traditional students in the United States.

EDMC- Education Management Corporation provides post-secondary education in North America. It offers campus-based and online instructions to enable students earn undergraduate and graduate degrees, including doctoral degrees and certain specialized non-degree diplomas in various disciplines.

Get Alerts that MakeMoney !® Everything else:HOTair©