

Hot Stock Picks for Thursday 07-14-2011

OWW- Orbitz Worldwide, operates as an online travel company worldwide. It enables leisure and business travelers to search for and book a range of travel products and services.

Airlines are increasingly trying to engage passengers directly that has put pressure on travel portals, Orbitz, however, looks very attractive at this price, keep an eye.

BNVI -Bionovo, focuses on women's health and cancer primarily in the United States. Its lead drug candidate, Menerba, which completed a Phase II clinical trial, is a receptor sub-type selective estrogen receptor modulator for the treatment of vasomotor symptoms of menopause.
Looks very promising, must be on your list.
